

(19)
PRIYANKA DEVI · K

XI-F

Essay Writing

Our Cultural Values and present Application
as per Mahabharat.

OUR CULTURAL VALUES AND IT'S PRESENT APPLICATION AS PER MAHABHARAT.

MY MOTHER IS NOT JUST A GEOGRAPHICAL REGION,
SHE IS AN EMOTION,
HER WALLS ECHO RESILIENCE OF SAGES,
HER PEOPLE ECHO LOVE AND HARMONY.
SHE IS BUILT THROUGH BLOOD, SWEAT AND TEARS,
ALL LEFT IS TO CHERISH AND BLOCK FEARS,
BECAUSE MY MOTHER IS NOT ORDINARY
SHE IS AN EMOTION; A SERENE HYMN OF LOVE.

India is not just a geographical content, it is an emotion. An emotion woven with years of struggle, colonisation and pain. India is now for its cultural heritage, its majestic history and her leadership and dominating properties. India's history reflects on discipline, rich values, cultural practices etc... One important gem India possess is the majestic Mahabharat. This epic shows a vivid image of the vintage Bharat and the emotions and disciplines they followed.

WHAT IS MAHABHARAT?

Mahabharat is an epic composed by sage Vyasa. The epic reflects on the war between the Pandavas and the Kauravas, that leads to the Kurukshetra. Despite the wars, it also decodes the working of the human mind and Body. The Mahabharata portrays many values like Dharma, Unity, leadership, Sacrifice, courage etc... A few of which we are to discuss further.

* DHARMA :

The mahabharata clearly portrays how Dharma is viewed as the soul value of a human being. The Pandavas dharma, Krishna's devotion towards Dharma all reflect on the importance given to dharma. Dharma is the act of simply doing what is right and not what is easier.

This ideal at the present is reflected on India's Judiciary and civic - institutions. Though often put to test, India's goal to give out what is right on terms of justice, reflects on Dharma is flying high with pride.

* UNITY :

The mahabharata vividly portrays the importance of unity. The Unity of the Pandavas throughout the epic showcases the rich brotherhood among the fellow bhavations.

This value stands as the very ground description of India. India is known for its unity among diversity. Unity is a property observed on every platform of India. We celebrate different festivals, speak thousands of languages, practice and propagate different religions, while still living in harmony and brotherhood.

* SACRIFICE :

Mahabharata portrays sacrifice as the prime value of a Human beings. Each and every character is known for their sacrifice in some form or the other. Bhishma's sacrifice of his throne and Ghatotkacha's sacrifice of her eyes are a few vivid examples.

Though this property is sensed only in a reduced amount, many people tend to make small sacrifices towards their personal growth and development. Every teacher who works for the wellness of her student, Every student who indirectly work for the wellness of their nation all echo the sacrifices made by them.

* COURAGE :

Courage is a undeniable value to be taken away from the mahabharat.

The courage of Arjuna, Bheema, Karna portrays the courageous Bharatians. Even today we Bharatians showcase courage in many forms. The soldiers of India stand as the living example for the degree of courage among the Indians even at the present.

LEADERSHIP :

The importance of mentorship, or good guidance is also a key takeaway from the Mahabharat. KRISHNA is the very example. His guidance had the ability to turn Arjuna from a grieving warrior in despair to one of the strongest, unbeatable warrior.

The implication of this property is observed in every Indian. India as a whole is known for its leadership qualities. Our honourable Prime Minister, Narendra Modi has been guiding our country towards the best portraying excellent leadership qualities.

KNOWLEDGE :

The representation and importance of the right knowledge is also a key factor.

to be taken away from the Mahabharat. Krishna is the very image of knowledge. Arjuna, Dhrona also showcase knowledge. The practice of going to Gurus and attain knowledge from the divine Bhagavad Gita show case the importance of knowledge.

Even at the present, Indian is known for its intelligence and knowledge. To India, knowledge is not just the power, it is the only power that executes our people and our country together.

PATRIOTISM :

Patriotism is vividly portrayed in the Mahabharata. Every character's love for their country, Draupadi's love for her country and her countrymen all show patriotism.

Even today, patriotism is observed in the silent little actions of our citizens. Every citizen who raises for our national anthem, every citizen who pledges with their heart, all showcase their love towards our Nation, Our mother Bharat.

Bharat had always been known for its prosperity and its rich cultural heritage. The ability of India to rise as the one of the largest economy, despite ~~a bloody~~ colonisation and partition, live in peace, harmony and brotherhood despite so many differences makes India outstanding and competitive. In today's fast paced present world. With a reminder that all these values are practised at the present due to the practise of the our ancestors. With all such takeaways helping us to soar into greater heights, let us pave way to a brighter, better, unstoppable India!

JAI HIND!

TRUTH IS NOT THE DOMINATING VALUE,
IT IS THE UNDERSTABLE PART.

COURAGE IS NOT THE ABSENCE OF FEAR, BUT THE TRIUMPH OVER IT!